1	Friday, 25 February 2022	1	Q. But you'd done all the assessments?
2	(10.00 am)	2	A. Yeah, I was waiting on a placement.
3	(Proceedings delayed)	3	Q. But, as you say, because the locations which you might
4	(10.06 am)	4	have been posted to were not suited to you, you went for
5	THE CHAIR: Good morning. Mr Altman?	5	the next option, which was working at Brook House?
6	MR ALTMAN: Chair, our witness today is Nathan Ring. Thank	6	A. That's correct.
7	you.	7	Q. Was that more convenient in terms of locality, then?
8	MR NATHAN DEAN RING affirmed)	8	A. Yes.
9	Examination by MR ALTMAN	9	Q. What had you done before? What was your occupation
10	MR ALTMAN: Your full name, please?	10	before that?
11	A. Nathan Dean Ring.	11	A. I was in construction.
12	Q. Mr Ring, first of all, can you confirm, please, that you	12	Q. So, having commenced in 2009, what training did you
13	have made two witness statements	13	undertake?
14	A. I have, yes.	14	A. After starting?
15	Q for the inquiry, respectively <mil000002>, which, in</mil000002>	15	Q. Yes.
16	fact, is the first of your two statements, and	16	A. I think it was a six-week training course.
17	<mil000001>, which is the second of your two statements.</mil000001>	17	Q. The initial training course?
18	Chair, I will ask for those to be adduced in full?	18	A. The initial training course, yes, the ITC, which
19	THE CHAIR: Thank you.	19	consisted of one week which was first aid and one week
20	MR ALTMAN: Mr Ring, I see you've got in front of you hard	20	control and restraint and some other bits and pieces in
21	copy files. By all means, have your statements in front	21	the classroom.
22	of you. We may refer to them from time to time. But	22	Q. But that lasted six weeks?
23	you may find it easier to use the documents which come	23	A. Six weeks in total and I think, within that six weeks,
24	up on screen from time to time; all right?	24	it was a week of shadowing on the floor.
25	A. Okay.	25	Q. Eventually promoted to a detainee custody manager?
	Page 1		Page 3
1	Q. So let's see how we get on.	1	A. Yep.
2	First of all, tell me something about yourself.	2	Q. Which was when?
3	First of all, when did you start at Brook House?	3	A. I don't recall when exactly it was.
4	A. I think it was around the summer time of 2009.	4	Q. I think you say in one of the paragraphs of your first
5	Q. As a DCO?	5	statement, paragraph 28, around three years, after three
6	A. Yes.	6	years of working at Brook House?
7	Q. Or as an ACO?	7	A. It was after yeah, it was after at least two or three
8	A. As a DCO.	8	years, yes.
9	Q. Was that in answer to an advert or did you get to work	9	Q. So, what, 2012-ish?
10	there through some other means?	10	A. Yes.
11	A. It was sort of through word of mouth. I previously got	11	Q. You say you made several application attempts.
12	through the prison system.	12	A. Yes.
13	Q. Through the?	13	Q. What did you mean by that?
14	A. Through to the Prison Service system, and I was waiting	14	A. Well, I applied for the I applied for the position of
15	for sort of like a placement, but a lot of the	15	DCM several times.
16	placements were far too far for me to travel and I got	16	Q. And why did you not succeed on the previous attempts?
17	word of mouth about the Brook House, which is obviously	17	A. I have no idea.
18	a similar area.	18	Q. Did you ask for feedback?
19	Q. So how far down the road, as it were, of working as	19	A. I did, but very little feedback.
20	a prison officer did you get?	20	Q. Have you no inkling at all as to why
21	A. I got through all the I was literally just waiting on	21	A. No.
22	a placement. I'd been and done all the assessments and	22	Q during several previous attempts to become a DCM
23	interviews and things like that.	23	A. No.
24	Q. Not training?	24	Q you were unsuccessful?
25	A. No, no.	25	A. No. I wasn't given any specific reason.

1	Q. Can you detect any reason why you were successful	1	around September 2017?
2	eventually or whether there was any distinction?	2	A. September 2017, yes.
3	A. I think probably experience	3	Q. I think you tendered your resignation when you realised
4	Q. Yes.	4	you'd be subjected to disciplinary process?
5	A I would have said, towards the end.	5	A. Yes.
6	Q. What did it involve, in order to gain promotion from DCO	6	Q. Now, thinking about the original recruitment process
7	to DCM? What did you have to do in order to get	7	when you first applied to become a DCO and you did
8	promotion?	8	become a DCO, do you think all of that prepared you for
9	A. There was nothing in particular.	9	the reality of Brook House?
10	Q. Well, any courses, any	10	A. No.
11	A. No.	11	Q. Because?
12	Q exams?	12	A. I think the lack for me probably the lack of people
13	A. Purely as an ACO, or even as an outsider, you just had	13	that had actually done the job recently doing the
14	the interview and that was it.	14	training. I think, as I say in the statement, the
15	Q. That was it?	15	actual second-to-last week, the week of shadowing on the
16	A. That was it.	16	floor, you get a much better feel for the job and
17	Q. Who interviewed you?	17	probably learnt a lot more on the floor than you did in
18	A. At the time, I believe it was the it was either the	18	the classroom.
19	director or deputy director.	19	Q. Did you feel, after the shadowing week, which, as
20	Q. Who was that?	20	I understand what you are saying, was more beneficial
21	A. I think it was Derek Milliken at the time.	21	than everything else
22	Q. Derek?	22	A. For me personally.
23	A. Milliken. He was a director, someone from HR and Nathan	23	Q. Yes, but did you feel that that prepared you for the
24	Ward from Cedars, because they were Cedars and	24	reality of Brook House, even so even the week
25	Tinsley family suite, because they were taking on family	25	shadowing?

2	Q. As far as you recall, your promotion to DCM from DCO,	2	and you're only doing a day or two in each area. You
3	roughly in 2012, was simply a question of an interview	3	don't know where you're going to be based and the sort
4	with three people?	4	of things you will face on a daily basis.
5	A. Yes.	5	Q. Well, what you said at your paragraph 8, and I think
6	Q. How long did that interview last?	6	here you're talking about the obviously the
7	A. Off the top of my head, probably 45 minutes to an hour.	7	recruitment process for becoming a DCO. You say:
8	Q. Do you remember the nature of the kind of questions?	8	"It didn't prepare me for the role"
9	A. Sort of competency-based questions.	9	This is your first statement:
10	Q. Yes.	10	"It consisted of a written and numeracy test,
11	A. I couldn't remember what the actual questions were, I'm	11	competency-based questions in the interview and a group

13	Q. Did you have to complete an application form to apply to	13	job itself and this might be one reason why Brook House
14	become a DCM?	14	had such high staff turnover rates."
15	A. Only in the form of a letter that you were interested in	15	Let me ask you about that. What did you mean by the
16	the position.	16	recruitment process being unrelated to the job itself?

1	Obviously you're writing this statement in the last	1	Alan James, Anthony Morgan, David Aldis, Joe Marshall,
2	few months, but is your impression now, looking back,	2	Luke Hutchinson, Nathan Ring, Simon Brobyn and
3	that the culture that you there described was a constant	3	Stephen Marner. This group were protected and favoured
4	throughout your whole time there? So from 2009 through	4	by Jules Williams and this dynamic is representative of
5	to 2017 when you left?	5	the hierarchies that operated in Brook House amongst the
6	A. Yes, yes.	6	staff which fostered a sense of collusion and impunity.
7	Q. In other words, was there never a time when you felt	7	If you were in Jules Williams' inner circle, you knew
8	there was sufficient staffing resource at Brook House?	8	that you would be protected."
9	A. No.	9	Is there anything you want to say about that,
10	Q. Was there ever a time when it wasn't a stressful	10	Mr Ring? Do you agree with it, disagree with it?
11	environment?	11	A. I don't agree with it.
12	A. Not really, no.	12	Q. What is it you don't agree with?
13	Q. Do you agree with one of the terms that we have heard	13	A. I don't believe there was any sort of inner circle, as
14	I'm sure we will hear again often that there was	14	you say. For myself, obviously I can't speak for anyone
15	a "toxic culture" at Brook House?	15	else, for myself, I never worked with Jules, or under
16	A. With regards to?	16	Jules, at all.
17	Q. Well, the people who worked there?	17	Q. So the impression Nathan Ward had that you were part of

6	the complete opposite of Nathan Ring. I didn't walk	6	A. No. I worked with him very little when he was at
7	around with a scowl on my face. I wanted to interact	7	Brook House the first time around, but then, since he
8	with the detainees. From the day I started working with	8	left and came back, I didn't really work with him at

3 4	First of all, tell us what you meant by saying that they were caught between the terms of the contract and	4	A which would be very minimal time spent down there,
5	the frustrations of staff?	5	obviously. Q. But you're talking about misbehaving detainees. What
6	A. So my personal opinion is, trying to fulfil the contract	6	about vulnerable

8	A. No.	8	Q. Perhaps? Perhaps? That doesn't shock you?
9	Q. What about bullying? Any other bullying by staff of	9	A. It's the context. I wasn't there. I don't know. You'd
10	detainees?	10	have to ask Yan, the context. Swearing and things like
11	A. No.	11	that are commonplace. I wasn't there. I can't comment
12	Q. Or of each other? No?	12	on that.
13	A. Not that I was aware of, no.	13	Q. Well, I did ask Yan, as you know, and now I'm asking
14	Q. Any physical abuse that you ever witnessed?	14	you. So what I'm asking you, Mr Ring, is, having viewed
15	A. No.	15	it, did it not shock you?
16	Q. Nothing?	16	A. Swearing and language like that? No.
17	A. No.	17	Q. No. So that was commonplace, was it?
18	Q. So if we just stand back for a moment and think about	18	A. Swearing and bad language is commonplace both ways, yes.
19	your evidence, Mr Ring, apart from low staff morale	19	Q. We're not talking about both ways, we are talking about
20	because of understaffing, your agreement with the fact	20	one way at the moment. Calling a detainee "you fucking
21	that it was likely that certain people were used more	21	piece of shit", was that something you ever did?
22	than others for C&R, was Brook House a great place to	22	A. No.
23	work, apart from the stresses that the understaffing	23	Q. You didn't. Did you ever hear any other staff member
24	caused? I mean, the picture you're painting doesn't	24	using anything like that in all the time that you were
25	seem to be a particularly bad one of Brook House.	25	there?
	1	20
1	I mean, what was the bad there? If you were a detainee?	1	A. No.
2	A. If I was a detainee?	2	Q. So this was completely off the scale?
3	Q. If you were a detainee, do you think it was	3	A. I've never witnessed anything like that, no.
4	a particularly pleasant place to be?	4	Q. But it shocks you, perhaps?
5	A. A very frustrating place to be, I would have thought,	5	A. Speaking to someone like that, yeah. As I say, I wasn't
6	for a detainee.	6	there, I don't know why it was said.
7	Q. Yes. From your perspective, people weren't abused,	7	Q. Let me ask you about drugs, drugs coming into the
8	verbally or physically. What you saw on Panorama with	8	centre. You deal with this in both your witness
9	John Connolly was shocking, but that was it. What about	9	statements. First of all, you've probably got open your
10	what you witnessed from having seen what Yan Paschali	10	first witness statement at paragraph 39. Let's have
11	did to the individual on 25 April? Did that shock you?	11	a look there at page 14. You say you were aware of
12	A. I wasn't there. I don't know. I don't know what	12	a member of staff bringing cannabis into Brook House for
13	happened. I've only seen what you have seen on the	13	his own personal use; yes?

15	Q. Well, you were there, but you weren't in the room. You	15	the ACOs, I don't recall his name, but one of the ACOs
16	were there during the course of that	16	was searched and had a bit of cannabis on him for his
17	A. I was there that day, but I didn't witness what	17	own use. But, yeah, ACOs were in the gatehouse. They
18	happened.	18	weren't coming into the centre.
19	Q. I'm not suggesting you did. But you've witnessed it	19	Q. And he was walked off the premises by police. So the
20	now. So what I'm asking is for your view of what you	20	police were called?
21	saw. Did you find it shocking?	20 21	A. I believe so, yes.
22	A. I don't know exactly what happened. I don't	22	Q. " who would often arrive unexpectedly to carry out
23	Q. Well, you do know what happened because you were able to	23	random spot checks for drugs."

4	A. It's your best tool, speaking to people, trying to get	4	you say at 76:

9	Q. So before you even get to C&R, you talk to somebody?	9	talking about the effect the drug was having and why it
10	A. Always, yes.	10	wasn't a good idea. I thought I'd gotten through to him
11	Q. " our voice was our best weapon we were taught to	11	and then I saw that he had again overdosed. It was the 13		14	Well, we will come back to that comment afterwards.

15	A. Yes, you would give strong commands during a C&R. Q. During C&R?	15
16	A. Yes.		But so that we are clear, were you talking here about
17		16 17	the event with D1275 on 14 June? When you were making comments like "div", "scrotum", that sort of thing?
18	Q. Would that mean swearing at somebody?		, , , ,
18	A. It may do, in the heat of the moment. If they're	18	A. Yes.
	shouting and things and swearing, you may do that as	19	Q. We will come back to that, as I say. Also, in terms of
20	well.	20	generality, before I turn to specific issues, Mr Ring,
21 22	Q. What is a command? How do you command somebody? Do you	21	food refusal and the like you deal with at paragraph 79,
	say, "Do something", "Don't do something"? Calling	22	which is self-harm, and how that would trigger the ACDT
23	somebody "a fucking piece of shit" is not a strong	23 24	process. But I want particularly to ask you about what
2.4	command is it?	. //1	you say at paragraph 80 and paragraph 81. At
24	command, is it?
24 25	command, is it? A. It's not one I would use, no.	25	paragraph 80, you say:

10 MR KELLY: Well, I heard it as "representation". 10 until he is reviewed again tomor	rrow."
11 MR ALTMAN: No, I'm sorry, I said "misrepresentation". 11 That's your signature, is it?
12 MR KELLY: Well, we are all clear now, then. 12 A. Yes. Well, I can't see the sign	nature but that's my name
13 MR ALTMAN: Yes, well, that's what the word says, Mr Kelly, 13 at the end and it looks like my	handwriting.
14 and that's what I read, even if the transcript doesn't. 14 Q. Forgive me. You have printed	your name and the

2	"I will wait till 107"	2	"This fucker here in the white T-shirt grey jeans."
3	What does "107" refer to? We have already seen	3	Tulley:

16	The transcript is wrong, according to Tulley's	16	I think he told us the words "is not" are wrong and
17	evidence, he said it should read "Oh, fucking, fucking	17	I'm struggling to read my own handwriting of what he
18	cross him off, the prick" and Tulley says:	18	substituted, but it was something other than "is not".
19	"Because he's refusing.	19	He said:
20	"Well, don't worry about him.	20	"Keep knocking his name off, no-one is going to know
21	"Shall I cross him off?", says Tulley:	21	anyway."
22	"Yeah, yeah, penis."	22	The final line, or the final substantive line here,
23	Then you say:	23	at line 229, although it reads "Nobody will then care",
24	"Spat his dummy out."	24	Tulley, having listened to this, said it's:
25	I mean, not the first time you've used the word	25	"Don't know. I don't care", is what you said.

7	Tulley:	7	Q. This is the incident, is it, that you were talking about
8	"I said to him I said 'Do you want to eat or	8	a little earlier when you told us that this was somebody
9	not'."	9	you had been dealing with, and because, what, he had
10	You said:	10	been eating, you were satisfied he had been eating or
11	"He's here on [something inaudible].	11	buying food from the shop, you had no concerns, and
12	" Did you get any soup, Nath?	12	that's why you told Tulley to cross him off?
13	"I just chucked another bowl at him. What a needy	13	A. He had been eating, he had lots of food in his room,
14	fucker he is."	14	I think, from the shop.
15	Tulley says:	15	Q. Yes.
16	" I tried going to the shop for him the other	16	A. I had been dealing with that gentleman for quite a bit
17	day. E wing?	17	of time, helping him out, going to the Home Office,
18	"He gets out there, he gets out there and walks	18	trying to help him. He wanted more and more, and he's

21	Here, according to Callum Tulley, when you get to	21	I say there, and I was saying it to Callum, it's what
22	the point talking about "chucked another bowl at him",	22	I'd already explained to the gentleman, because he
23	apparently, as I understood him, you were talking about	23	hasn't been there long, he will be seen by the
24	another detainee altogether. So that's the first part	24	Home Office and, if he's applied again, then he's just

8	him acting in a child-like way. Somebody else was	8	57:
9	"a needy fucker". Then, on the page we are looking at,	9	"Further, in his evidence on 30 November, Mr Tulley
10	when Tulley was saying in respect of him or somebody	10	says I didn't record detainee's food refusals because
11	else, "Keep knocking his name off. No-one is going to	11	I took pleasure in the suffering of detainees and that

13	saying, "Don't know, don't care". It doesn't sound very	13	truth. I absolutely refute the allegation. Mr Tulley
14	good, does it, Mr Ring?	14	has portrayed many of the former G4S employees as
15	A. It doesn't the way that's written, no.	15	monsters, but overwhelmingly DCOs and DCMs tried to get
16	Q. No.	16	on with and help detained people and that's abundantly
17	A. But, as I pointed out before, if Callum was doing the	17	evident from other aspects of the evidence which the
18	meal list, it was down to him go and report any food and	18	inquiry has amassed. The Home Office's findings of my
19	food refusals or people that hadn't eaten. It wasn't	19	conduct on 24 April being one example discussed
20	down to me to say what to do. If he had any concern or	20	elsewhere in this statement."
21	he knew that someone hadn't eaten, it was down to him to	21	That's the PSU report which I have already referred
22	go and fill out the food refusal log. Those comments	22	to.
23	are obviously made to him purely out of frustration, but	23	So what you are saying is, first of all, despite
24	me saying that to him would have had no impact	24	what we see on the transcript, if Tulley had any
25	whatsoever on whether he did his job correctly and	25	concerns, he should have done something about it.

Yes? A. Mmm-hmm. Q. Is that a fair summary of what you're saying? A. Well, yeah, the few minutes that Callum captured of me on camera aren't really what the hours and hours of ACDT documents and things like that would show if you went back through the history, no. Q. You accept, don't you, that food refusal was an important issue? A. I do, yes. As I'm sure you're aware, absolutely anybody could open an ACDT if they had any concerns at all. Q. Yes, they could, you're right about that. But it was an important issue because it could indicate that somebody

3	unwell, I just put on there whether I call him an	3	a scrotum. Do you think those words were justified in
4	"idiot", a "div", yeah. I would put this along the	4	those circumstances? This was a medical emergency,
5	lines of going out with friends and one of them has	5	wasn't it?
6	a bit too much to drink, how you would deal with that	6	A. "Stay still, you div", that was because healthcare were
7	sort of individual.	7	trying to help him, I believe.
8	Q. The trouble is, Mr Ring, he wasn't your mate?	8	Q. Yes, it was a medical emergency. Do you think those
9	A. No, but it was someone I conversed with and thought	9	words were justified in those circumstances?
10	I had a bit of a rapport with.	10	A. I purely said them out of frustration.
11	Q. He was in your care, wasn't he? He is not your mate,	11	Q. Then, towards the bottom of the page, line 1501:
12	you're not socialising with him and, even if you have	12	"I'll get him cold water, that will sort his heart
13	a rapport, he was in a position to hear what you said?	13	out, that will do it the world of good."
14	A. I don't believe he was, no.	14	What did you mean by that?
15	Q. Well, he was physically present, wasn't he?	15	A. I'd had a previous conversation talking about how cold
16	A. He was present, but there's no way he understood what	16	water can stop you from sort of passing out and things
17	I said.	17	like that and how it affects your heart rate. That was
18	Q. So that makes it all right?	18	just another silly joke/comment, really.
19	A. No, because it was more of a comment to the others	19	Q. Right. Then the top of page 47. Let me ask you about
20	like I say, again, the officers that were there, not	20	this to clear this one up one way or the other. At
21	directly at him.	21	line 1512, the way it's been transcribed and heard by
22	Q. You're not setting a great example to those around you,	22	the transcriber is:
23	are you, do you think?	23	"Jules hairy ball sack."
24	A. Myself and the other manager that was there.	24	Did that have anything to do with Jules Williams or
25	Q. Do you think you were setting a good example?	25	is that a mistranscription?
1	A. Probably not with those comments, no.	1	A. I saw this footage yesterday. What it is, it's another
2	Q. No.	2	officer that it was a bit of an in-joke. A lot of us
3	A. But, as I say, in the context and the rapport I had with	3	called each other "Jules". It was joking with the other
4	him, I didn't see an issue.	4	officer that turned up.
5	Q. Let's get to the next page, 46, because here, if we	5	Q. Why were you calling each other "Jules"?
6	remember the footage, he is on his bed singing, and	6	A. It was just an in-joke. Like, I believe someone spoke
7	there's a nurse there and somebody called Hayley.	7	to Jules once and their voice broke or said it funny.
8	Nurse 1 says:	8	I don't know. It's a silly joke, really. In-joke.
9	"Put your arm down for me. I need to check"	9	Q. So the "hairy ball sack" was to another officer?
10	So healthcare is there. You say:	10	A. Yes, to the officer that arrived, yes. That's quite
11	"Hurry up and get to the chorus, I know that bit."	11	clear, I think, on the footage.
12	And Hayley says:	12	Q. Then, at the top of 48:
13	"I wonder if he knows the dance to" whatever it	13	"What's he doing now?", says Callum Tulley:
14	is, some lyric:	14	"Probably gurning. Checking out the inside of his
15	"Is there any more? Is that it? Encore."	15	skull. His eyes are rolling around."
16	Then he talks about never forgetting you having	16	What was that? A joke, born of frustration,
17	said, "Do you take requests?" and Hayley says:	17	mocking, banter? What do you think?
18	"I'll never forget the detainee [singing]	18	A. As I say, I think that was outside of the room, just me
19	Barbie Girl over karaoke."	19	and Callum. But I think just a joke, I think.
20	Then at line 1478:	20	Q. I mean, you said in your witness statement or you refer
21	"Stay still, you div."	21	to much of this as facetious. Is that what you think it
22	And at line 1482:	22	was, just facetious comments?
23	"Scrotum."	23	A. A couple of silly comments, yes.
24	Around you are other people Hayley, a nurse,	24	Q. But, in the circumstances, if I have understood you
25	you're in the room with the detained man, and you're	25	correctly, justified?

1	A. From my frustration, yes. As I say, I don't think any	1	stuff. And there was all this effort. There's a big

Did you have mentoring, conversations with managers, did you talk about some of the things that you were exposed to during the work? A. As I say, not really. I can't talk for anyone else. Purely, for mine, it was humour. Obviously, sometimes it was misplaced, and things, but that was my way. A lot of the things I saw and had to deal with, I wouldn't be taking home to my wife and the kids. That was just me. THE CHAIR: Did you talk to anybody about that at work? A. Not particularly, I don't think, no. No-one did, really. THE CHAIR: Thank you. They are all the questions I have,

1	it's not an easy experience, but it's been important to
2	hear it. So thank you.
3	A. Thank you.
4	MR ALTMAN: Chair, that's it for today. We are back on
5	Monday, I think at 10.00 am, when we should be hearing
6	from Clayton Fraser and some other people. I can't
7	remember who else we have coming but certainly
8	Clayton Fraser. Mr Goodman reminds me, Daniel Small,
9	apparently.
10	THE CHAIR: Thank you. I will see you on Monday at
11	10.00 am. Thank you very much. Thank you, Mr Ring.
12	(The witness withdrew)
13	(1.50 pm)
14	(The hearing was adjourned to
15	Monday, 28 February 2022 at 10.00 am)
