Hello Mary,

Thanks for the chat just now. I am forwarding a summary of what the caller told us. If you do verify any of this, I'd be very interested to hear about it.

You may have spoken to Anne Duffy at Tinsley House about our recent inspection there – one of the main issues that staff raised was short notice redeployment to Brook and being unprepared for what they had to deal with there.

Best wishes,

Hindpal

Subject: PHONE CALL RE BROOK HOUSE

I have just taken a call from a new employee at Brook House, who wanted to remain anonymous. He told me he had just completed the initial training course and had only been given keys and a radio and placed on a wing for a week and was already having new staff shadowing him. He told me that one of the new staff, a woman, had been sexually assaulted by an inmate. He complained that they were very short-staffed and unable to take breaks as a result, and that the centre was out of control and volatile. He was concerned about the safety of staff.

I said I would log the information and pass it on to the team leader.

Stephen
