۱ ,		l
1	What sort of situations might affect you most? Were	1	relaxed environment, they put it out as, and it was
2	you thinking about the type of detainees or the sort of	2	less less dealing with I don't know the correct
3	stuff you had to do within the job?	3	term of it, forgive me. It's working with the detainees
4	A. More the sort of stuff that the job implies, such as	4	who come from prison and then were sent back again.
5	dealing on a day-to-day basis with detainees, as well as	5	There was more of a relaxed environment at Tinsley House
6	difficult situations like first aid situations, for	6	that would obviously make the working life a bit less
7	example, conflicting situations, as in such that require	7	stressful.
8	use of force, and just the general day-to-day work	8	Q. Did you tell the staff at Brook House anything about
9	stresses that you would get from working shift work as	9	your reasons for wanting a transfer or did you just ask
10	well, really, because it was fairly if I remember, it	10	for a transfer, if you remember?
11	was very long shifts, about 12 hours long. Then again,	11	A. I asked for a transfer from I think it was a higher
12	that has its own stresses.	12	manager senior manager at the time, Stephen Skitt
13	Q. As we said, you completed your training, worked in the	13	I believe his name was, from memory. I requested to him
14	centre from the start of 2017, and you handed in your	14	saying I went to him saying, basically, I couldn't
15	notice on 14 August 2017. You say in your statement	15	really handle the stresses anymore and I needed a new
16	that there were two reasons for leaving. The first was	16	environment to see if I could take me away from my
17	because you got a career opportunity in the area that	17	current situation and see if that would benefit me at
18	you wanted to work in, so I assume that you'd been	18	all in the long run.
19	keeping an eye out or even maybe actively looking for	19	Q. Yep.
20	jobs while you were at Brook House?	20	A. But then, after that, yeah, I didn't really hear much
21	A. Yeah, that's correct. As soon as — I obviously worked	21	back, to be honest with you.
22	as a baggage handler, then had what you would call a	22	Q. So you never heard back about your request to transfer
23	like a step-up job, sort of thing, a gap job, waiting	23	to Tinsley?
24	for my employment in electrical engineering, so I was	24	A. It took a while. I got the request back saying that it
25	just scrolling through all the recruitment websites to	25	was denied, basically, in short.
	Page 169	_	Page 171
1	see what I could find, and as soon as I got one, I would	1	Q. About three months later, you took the decision to leave
2	obviously venture into that.	2	anyway, so you got the job offer and you left
3	Q. You say there was another reason for handing in your	3	completely. Did you tell anyone about the reasons for
4	notice as well, which was to do with the stresses of	4	 20
_			leaving being related to you not getting the transfer to
5	the job, which you have talked about already with us	5	leaving being related to you not getting the transfer to Tinsley, or not?
1000	the job, which you have talked about already with us iust now, so the shift work and also the nature of		Tinsley, or not?
5 6 7	just now, so the shift work and also the nature of	6	Tinsley, or not? A. No, to be honest with you. I tried to go through the
6 7	just now, so the shift work and also the nature of the role; is that fair?	6 7	Tinsley, or not? A. No, to be honest with you. I tried to go through the official channels, as I did, to get some help, and then
6 7 8	just now, so the shift work and also the nature of the role; is that fair? A. Yeah, that's fair.	6	Tinsley, or not? A. No, to be honest with you. I tried to go through the official channels, as I did, to get some help, and then after failing that, I took it on my own best interests
6 7 8 9	just now, so the shift work and also the nature of the role; is that fair?	6 7 8 9	Tinsley, or not? A. No, to be honest with you. I tried to go through the official channels, as I did, to get some help, and then after failing that, I took it on my own best interests just to resign and then move on, really.
6 7 8 9	just now, so the shift work and also the nature of the role; is that fair?A. Yeah, that's fair.Q. Did G4S know what your leaving reason was, do you remember?	6 7 8 9	Tinsley, or not? A. No, to be honest with you. I tried to go through the official channels, as I did, to get some help, and then after failing that, I took it on my own best interests just to resign and then move on, really. Q. What sort of help other than the transfer to Tinsley
6 7 8 9 10 11	just now, so the shift work and also the nature of the role; is that fair? A. Yeah, that's fair. Q. Did G4S know what your leaving reason was, do you remember? A. From what I recall, no. I remember handing in my notice	6 7 8 9	Tinsley, or not? A. No, to be honest with you. I tried to go through the official channels, as I did, to get some help, and then after failing that, I took it on my own best interests just to resign and then move on, really. Q. What sort of help other than the transfer to Tinsley were you hoping or expecting to have?
6 7 8 9 10 11 12	just now, so the shift work and also the nature of the role; is that fair? A. Yeah, that's fair. Q. Did G4S know what your leaving reason was, do you remember? A. From what I recall, no. I remember handing in my notice and then that was it. That's all I heard of it, really.	6 7 8 9 10 11 12	Tinsley, or not? A. No, to be honest with you. I tried to go through the official channels, as I did, to get some help, and then after failing that, I took it on my own best interests just to resign and then move on, really. Q. What sort of help other than the transfer to Tinsley were you hoping or expecting to have? A. I would say more support from management, really. They
6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	just now, so the shift work and also the nature of the role; is that fair? A. Yeah, that's fair. Q. Did G4S know what your leaving reason was, do you remember? A. From what I recall, no. I remember handing in my notice and then that was it. That's all I heard of it, really. Q. You said in your statement, this is your first	6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	Tinsley, or not? A. No, to be honest with you. I tried to go through the official channels, as I did, to get some help, and then after failing that, I took it on my own best interests just to resign and then move on, really. Q. What sort of help other than the transfer to Tinsley were you hoping or expecting to have? A. I would say more support from management, really. They saw — they could see me, I came to them struggling,
6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	just now, so the shift work and also the nature of the role; is that fair? A. Yeah, that's fair. Q. Did G4S know what your leaving reason was, do you remember? A. From what I recall, no. I remember handing in my notice and then that was it. That's all I heard of it, really. Q. You said in your statement, this is your first statement, at paragraph 4, that in May 2017 you wanted	6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14	Tinsley, or not? A. No, to be honest with you. I tried to go through the official channels, as I did, to get some help, and then after failing that, I took it on my own best interests just to resign and then move on, really. Q. What sort of help other than the transfer to Tinsley were you hoping or expecting to have? A. I would say more support from management, really. They saw — they could see me, I came to them struggling, I was hoping they could've provided more. As in such,
6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14	just now, so the shift work and also the nature of the role; is that fair? A. Yeah, that's fair. Q. Did G4S know what your leaving reason was, do you remember? A. From what I recall, no. I remember handing in my notice and then that was it. That's all I heard of it, really. Q. You said in your statement, this is your first statement, at paragraph 4, that in May 2017 you wanted to transfer to Tinsley House, so you referred to an	6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14	Tinsley, or not? A. No, to be honest with you. I tried to go through the official channels, as I did, to get some help, and then after failing that, I took it on my own best interests just to resign and then move on, really. Q. What sort of help other than the transfer to Tinsley were you hoping or expecting to have? A. I would say more support from management, really. They saw — they could see me, I came to them struggling, I was hoping they could've provided more. As in such, they did recommend me to a healthcare professional,
6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15	just now, so the shift work and also the nature of the role; is that fair? A. Yeah, that's fair. Q. Did G4S know what your leaving reason was, do you remember? A. From what I recall, no. I remember handing in my notice and then that was it. That's all I heard of it, really. Q. You said in your statement, this is your first statement, at paragraph 4, that in May 2017 you wanted to transfer to Tinsley House, so you referred to an email, which you sent on 5 May at about 10.30 at night,	6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15	A. No, to be honest with you. I tried to go through the official channels, as I did, to get some help, and then after failing that, I took it on my own best interests just to resign and then move on, really. Q. What sort of help other than the transfer to Tinsley were you hoping or expecting to have? A. I would say more support from management, really. They saw — they could see me, I came to them struggling, I was hoping they could've provided more. As in such, they did recommend me to a healthcare professional, which is okay, but I needed help at that point in time,
6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16	just now, so the shift work and also the nature of the role; is that fair? A. Yeah, that's fair. Q. Did G4S know what your leaving reason was, do you remember? A. From what I recall, no. I remember handing in my notice and then that was it. That's all I heard of it, really. Q. You said in your statement, this is your first statement, at paragraph 4, that in May 2017 you wanted to transfer to Tinsley House, so you referred to an email, which you sent on 5 May at about 10.30 at night, requesting a transfer to Tinsley. I don't think you'd	6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16	A. No, to be honest with you. I tried to go through the official channels, as I did, to get some help, and then after failing that, I took it on my own best interests just to resign and then move on, really. Q. What sort of help other than the transfer to Tinsley were you hoping or expecting to have? A. I would say more support from management, really. They saw — they could see me, I came to them struggling, I was hoping they could've provided more. As in such, they did recommend me to a healthcare professional, which is okay, but I needed help at that point in time, and, from my belief, I believe they failed in that
6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	just now, so the shift work and also the nature of the role; is that fair? A. Yeah, that's fair. Q. Did G4S know what your leaving reason was, do you remember? A. From what I recall, no. I remember handing in my notice and then that was it. That's all I heard of it, really. Q. You said in your statement, this is your first statement, at paragraph 4, that in May 2017 you wanted to transfer to Tinsley House, so you referred to an email, which you sent on 5 May at about 10.30 at night, requesting a transfer to Tinsley. I don't think you'd ever worked at Tinsley, had you?	6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	Tinsley, or not? A. No, to be honest with you. I tried to go through the official channels, as I did, to get some help, and then after failing that, I took it on my own best interests just to resign and then move on, really. Q. What sort of help other than the transfer to Tinsley were you hoping or expecting to have? A. I would say more support from management, really. They saw — they could see me, I came to them struggling, I was hoping they could've provided more. As in such, they did recommend me to a healthcare professional, which is okay, but I needed help at that point in time, and, from my belief, I believe they failed in that completely.
6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	just now, so the shift work and also the nature of the role; is that fair? A. Yeah, that's fair. Q. Did G4S know what your leaving reason was, do you remember? A. From what I recall, no. I remember handing in my notice and then that was it. That's all I heard of it, really. Q. You said in your statement, this is your first statement, at paragraph 4, that in May 2017 you wanted to transfer to Tinsley House, so you referred to an email, which you sent on 5 May at about 10.30 at night, requesting a transfer to Tinsley. I don't think you'd ever worked at Tinsley, had you? A. No. At the time, I don't think the centre was up and	6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	Tinsley, or not? A. No, to be honest with you. I tried to go through the official channels, as I did, to get some help, and then after failing that, I took it on my own best interests just to resign and then move on, really. Q. What sort of help other than the transfer to Tinsley were you hoping or expecting to have? A. I would say more support from management, really. They saw — they could see me, I came to them struggling, I was hoping they could've provided more. As in such, they did recommend me to a healthcare professional, which is okay, but I needed help at that point in time, and, from my belief, I believe they failed in that completely. Q. Was it just I know you can't be completely sure, but
6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	just now, so the shift work and also the nature of the role; is that fair? A. Yeah, that's fair. Q. Did G4S know what your leaving reason was, do you remember? A. From what I recall, no. I remember handing in my notice and then that was it. That's all I heard of it, really. Q. You said in your statement, this is your first statement, at paragraph 4, that in May 2017 you wanted to transfer to Tinsley House, so you referred to an email, which you sent on 5 May at about 10.30 at night, requesting a transfer to Tinsley. I don't think you'd ever worked at Tinsley, had you? A. No. At the time, I don't think the centre was up and running at that current period of time.	6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	Tinsley, or not? A. No, to be honest with you. I tried to go through the official channels, as I did, to get some help, and then after failing that, I took it on my own best interests just to resign and then move on, really. Q. What sort of help other than the transfer to Tinsley were you hoping or expecting to have? A. I would say more support from management, really. They saw — they could see me, I came to them struggling, I was hoping they could've provided more. As in such, they did recommend me to a healthcare professional, which is okay, but I needed help at that point in time, and, from my belief, I believe they failed in that completely. Q. Was it just — I know you can't be completely sure, but you think it might have been Mr Skitt you spoke to. Do
6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	just now, so the shift work and also the nature of the role; is that fair? A. Yeah, that's fair. Q. Did G4S know what your leaving reason was, do you remember? A. From what I recall, no. I remember handing in my notice and then that was it. That's all I heard of it, really. Q. You said in your statement, this is your first statement, at paragraph 4, that in May 2017 you wanted to transfer to Tinsley House, so you referred to an email, which you sent on 5 May at about 10.30 at night, requesting a transfer to Tinsley. I don't think you'd ever worked at Tinsley, had you? A. No. At the time, I don't think the centre was up and running at that current period of time. Q. That's right. I think it had been closed for	6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	Tinsley, or not? A. No, to be honest with you. I tried to go through the official channels, as I did, to get some help, and then after failing that, I took it on my own best interests just to resign and then move on, really. Q. What sort of help other than the transfer to Tinsley were you hoping or expecting to have? A. I would say more support from management, really. They saw — they could see me, I came to them struggling, I was hoping they could've provided more. As in such, they did recommend me to a healthcare professional, which is okay, but I needed help at that point in time, and, from my belief, I believe they failed in that completely. Q. Was it just — I know you can't be completely sure, but you think it might have been Mr Skitt you spoke to. Do you remember anyone else you spoke to seeking this sort
6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	just now, so the shift work and also the nature of the role; is that fair? A. Yeah, that's fair. Q. Did G4S know what your leaving reason was, do you remember? A. From what I recall, no. I remember handing in my notice and then that was it. That's all I heard of it, really. Q. You said in your statement, this is your first statement, at paragraph 4, that in May 2017 you wanted to transfer to Tinsley House, so you referred to an email, which you sent on 5 May at about 10.30 at night, requesting a transfer to Tinsley. I don't think you'd ever worked at Tinsley, had you? A. No. At the time, I don't think the centre was up and running at that current period of time. Q. That's right. I think it had been closed for refurbishment. What did you know about Tinsley that	6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	Tinsley, or not? A. No, to be honest with you. I tried to go through the official channels, as I did, to get some help, and then after failing that, I took it on my own best interests just to resign and then move on, really. Q. What sort of help other than the transfer to Tinsley were you hoping or expecting to have? A. I would say more support from management, really. They saw — they could see me, I came to them struggling, I was hoping they could've provided more. As in such, they did recommend me to a healthcare professional, which is okay, but I needed help at that point in time, and, from my belief, I believe they failed in that completely. Q. Was it just — I know you can't be completely sure, but you think it might have been Mr Skitt you spoke to. Do you remember anyone else you spoke to seeking this sort of help?
6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	just now, so the shift work and also the nature of the role; is that fair? A. Yeah, that's fair. Q. Did G4S know what your leaving reason was, do you remember? A. From what I recall, no. I remember handing in my notice and then that was it. That's all I heard of it, really. Q. You said in your statement, this is your first statement, at paragraph 4, that in May 2017 you wanted to transfer to Tinsley House, so you referred to an email, which you sent on 5 May at about 10.30 at night, requesting a transfer to Tinsley. I don't think you'd ever worked at Tinsley, had you? A. No. At the time, I don't think the centre was up and running at that current period of time. Q. That's right. I think it had been closed for refurbishment. What did you know about Tinsley that made you request a transfer there?	6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	A. No, to be honest with you. I tried to go through the official channels, as I did, to get some help, and then after failing that, I took it on my own best interests just to resign and then move on, really. Q. What sort of help other than the transfer to Tinsley were you hoping or expecting to have? A. I would say more support from management, really. They saw — they could see me, I came to them struggling, I was hoping they could've provided more. As in such, they did recommend me to a healthcare professional, which is okay, but I needed help at that point in time, and, from my belief, I believe they failed in that completely. Q. Was it just — I know you can't be completely sure, but you think it might have been Mr Skitt you spoke to. Do you remember arryone else you spoke to seeking this sort of help? A. Yeah, I think it was — I vaguely remember having an
6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24	just now, so the shift work and also the nature of the role; is that fair? A. Yeah, that's fair. Q. Did G4S know what your leaving reason was, do you remember? A. From what I recall, no. I remember handing in my notice and then that was it. That's all I heard of it, really. Q. You said in your statement, this is your first statement, at paragraph 4, that in May 2017 you wanted to transfer to Tinsley House, so you referred to an email, which you sent on 5 May at about 10.30 at night, requesting a transfer to Tinsley. I don't think you'd ever worked at Tinsley, had you? A. No. At the time, I don't think the centre was up and running at that current period of time. Q. That's right. I think it had been closed for refurbishment. What did you know about Tinsley that made you request a transfer there? A. From what — it was more what I heard from peers,	6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24	A. No, to be honest with you. I tried to go through the official channels, as I did, to get some help, and then after failing that, I took it on my own best interests just to resign and then move on, really. Q. What sort of help other than the transfer to Tinsley were you hoping or expecting to have? A. I would say more support from management, really. They saw — they could see me, I came to them struggling, I was hoping they could've provided more. As in such, they did recommend me to a healthcare professional, which is okay, but I needed help at that point in time, and, from my belief, I believe they failed in that completely. Q. Was it just — I know you can't be completely sure, but you think it might have been Mr Skitt you spoke to. Do you remember arryone else you spoke to seeking this sort of help? A. Yeah, I think it was — I vaguely remember having an interview with Ben Saunders, which I believe was the
6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	just now, so the shift work and also the nature of the role; is that fair? A. Yeah, that's fair. Q. Did G4S know what your leaving reason was, do you remember? A. From what I recall, no. I remember handing in my notice and then that was it. That's all I heard of it, really. Q. You said in your statement, this is your first statement, at paragraph 4, that in May 2017 you wanted to transfer to Tinsley House, so you referred to an email, which you sent on 5 May at about 10.30 at night, requesting a transfer to Tinsley. I don't think you'd ever worked at Tinsley, had you? A. No. At the time, I don't think the centre was up and running at that current period of time. Q. That's right. I think it had been closed for refurbishment. What did you know about Tinsley that made you request a transfer there?	6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	A. No, to be honest with you. I tried to go through the official channels, as I did, to get some help, and then after failing that, I took it on my own best interests just to resign and then move on, really. Q. What sort of help other than the transfer to Tinsley were you hoping or expecting to have? A. I would say more support from management, really. They saw — they could see me, I came to them struggling, I was hoping they could've provided more. As in such, they did recommend me to a healthcare professional, which is okay, but I needed help at that point in time, and, from my belief, I believe they failed in that completely. Q. Was it just — I know you can't be completely sure, but you think it might have been Mr Skitt you spoke to. Do you remember arryone else you spoke to seeking this sort of help? A. Yeah, I think it was — I vaguely remember having an
6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24	just now, so the shift work and also the nature of the role; is that fair? A. Yeah, that's fair. Q. Did G4S know what your leaving reason was, do you remember? A. From what I recall, no. I remember handing in my notice and then that was it. That's all I heard of it, really. Q. You said in your statement, this is your first statement, at paragraph 4, that in May 2017 you wanted to transfer to Tinsley House, so you referred to an email, which you sent on 5 May at about 10.30 at night, requesting a transfer to Tinsley. I don't think you'd ever worked at Tinsley, had you? A. No. At the time, I don't think the centre was up and running at that current period of time. Q. That's right. I think it had been closed for refurbishment. What did you know about Tinsley that made you request a transfer there? A. From what — it was more what I heard from peers,	6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24	A. No, to be honest with you. I tried to go through the official channels, as I did, to get some help, and then after failing that, I took it on my own best interests just to resign and then move on, really. Q. What sort of help other than the transfer to Tinsley were you hoping or expecting to have? A. I would say more support from management, really. They saw — they could see me, I came to them struggling, I was hoping they could've provided more. As in such, they did recommend me to a healthcare professional, which is okay, but I needed help at that point in time, and, from my belief, I believe they failed in that completely. Q. Was it just — I know you can't be completely sure, but you think it might have been Mr Skitt you spoke to. Do you remember arryone else you spoke to seeking this sort of help? A. Yeah, I think it was — I vaguely remember having an interview with Ben Saunders, which I believe was the

43 (Pages 169 to 172)

1	Q. He's the centre director, yeah.	1	not enough staff to conduct the duty properly."
2	A. That sounds about right. Yeah, I had an interview with	2	And then you say that only three officers for over
3	him. We talked through it and then, basically, other	3	100 detainees wasn't enough staff for approximately 100
4	than being referred to healthcare, nothing more came of	4	detainees.
5	it, so that was the end of it.	5	A. Yes, that was correct, from my statement. I believe
6	Q. When approximately was this? Was it after your request	6	that was the case as well, that there was generally not
7	to go to Tinsley but before you gave in your notice?	7	enough people per wing to thoroughly do a head count
8	A. From what I recall, yes. I can't claim exact dates, but	8	easy enough.
9	I'm sure it was after I spoke to Mr Skitt that then	9	Q. Do you remember, was this an occasional issue or was it
10	I went on to speak to the head of Brook House,	10	more a frequent issue?
11	basically.	11	A. I can't really recall much from that time, but when
12	Q. Did he offer anything by way of assistance other than,	12	I can recall that when we were doing head counts, it did
13	as you say, the referral to mental health? Did he	13	seem like — the staffing levels were the same. We
14	offer, for example, for you to be moved to the same role	14	normally generally had three people per wing. It was
15	but a different place within the centre? Do you	15	the general staffing levels. And it was always one
16	remember any practical help?	16	person per floor and, to be honest with you, it was
17	A. From what I recall, nothing really changed, to be honest	17	a lot for one person, to deal with almost, like, 100
18	with you, other than referral to mental health care,	18	people on each floor, to count them properly from the
19	which sort of — to me, at the time, felt like a lack of	19	procedures that we were taught.
20	interest, really, that they wanted me to be someone	20	Q. You were asked also about your role in the visits hall,
21	else's problem. That's how I felt at the time.	21	which is something I believe was shown on Panorama,
22	Q. Were you offered any time off, for example?	22	where Callum Tulley is chatting to you about your role
23	A. From what I recall, no, no time off whatsoever.	23	in visits. Again, we have a transcript of this. It is
24	Q. So on a day-to-day basis, even after you spoke to	24	<trn0000094>. I will ask for that to be shown on the</trn0000094>
25	Mr Saunders, your role was unchanged?	25	screen, if that's possible. Page 55. It might be a bit
	Page 173		Page 175
	8	-	0
		l
1	A. Yes, from what I recall, it was unchanged.	1	difficult for you because I know you're viewing a split
1 2	A. Yes, from what I recall, it was unchanged. Q. I want to ask you quickly about staffing levels, which	1 2	difficult for you because I know you're viewing a split screen so I'll read it as well. It is a discussion
2	Q. I want to ask you quickly about staffing levels, which	2	screen so I'll read it as well. It is a discussion
2	Q. I want to ask you quickly about staffing levels, which you discuss in your first statement at a number of	2 3	screen so I'll read it as well. It is a discussion between yourself and Callum Tulley. I will just read
2 3 4	Q. I want to ask you quickly about staffing levels, which you discuss in your first statement at a number of paragraphs 8, 46 to 47, 54 and 55. But I think, in	2 3 4	screen so I'll read it as well. It is a discussion between yourself and Callum Tulley. I will just read the top bit. In the third line down, you say:
2 3 4 5	Q. I want to ask you quickly about staffing levels, which you discuss in your first statement at a number of paragraphs 8, 46 to 47, 54 and 55. But I think, in general, you say Brook House was understaffed?	2 3 4 5	screen so I'll read it as well. It is a discussion between yourself and Callum Tulley. I will just read the top bit. In the third line down, you say: "I don't really have a clue what I'm doing in here.
2 3 4 5 6	 Q. I want to ask you quickly about staffing levels, which you discuss in your first statement at a number of paragraphs 8, 46 to 47, 54 and 55. But I think, in general, you say Brook House was understaffed? A. Yes, that's basically the main point of it. It was 	2 3 4 5 6	screen so I'll read it as well. It is a discussion between yourself and Callum Tulley. I will just read the top bit. In the third line down, you say: "I don't really have a clue what I'm doing in here. This is the first time I've ever been in visitors."
2 3 4 5 6 7	 Q. I want to ask you quickly about staffing levels, which you discuss in your first statement at a number of paragraphs 8, 46 to 47, 54 and 55. But I think, in general, you say Brook House was understaffed? A. Yes, that's basically the main point of it. It was understaffed, yes. 	2 3 4 5 6 7	screen so I'll read it as well. It is a discussion between yourself and Callum Tulley. I will just read the top bit. In the third line down, you say: "I don't really have a clue what I'm doing in here. This is the first time I've ever been in visitors." Callum says:
2 3 4 5 6 7 8	 Q. I want to ask you quickly about staffing levels, which you discuss in your first statement at a number of paragraphs 8, 46 to 47, 54 and 55. But I think, in general, you say Brook House was understaffed? A. Yes, that's basically the main point of it. It was understaffed, yes. Q. You were asked to comment, in particular in your second 	2 3 4 5 6 7 8	screen so I'll read it as well. It is a discussion between yourself and Callum Tulley. I will just read the top bit. In the third line down, you say: "I don't really have a clue what I'm doing in here. This is the first time I've ever been in visitors." Callum says: "'Cos you don't know what you're doing?"
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	 Q. I want to ask you quickly about staffing levels, which you discuss in your first statement at a number of paragraphs 8, 46 to 47, 54 and 55. But I think, in general, you say Brook House was understaffed? A. Yes, that's basically the main point of it. It was understaffed, yes. Q. You were asked to comment, in particular in your second statement, about a transcript, which we have I won't 	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	screen so I'll read it as well. It is a discussion between yourself and Callum Tulley. I will just read the top bit. In the third line down, you say: "I don't really have a clue what I'm doing in here. This is the first time I've ever been in visitors." Callum says: "'Cos you don't know what you're doing?" You say:
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	 Q. I want to ask you quickly about staffing levels, which you discuss in your first statement at a number of paragraphs 8, 46 to 47, 54 and 55. But I think, in general, you say Brook House was understaffed? A. Yes, that's basically the main point of it. It was understaffed, yes. Q. You were asked to comment, in particular in your second statement, about a transcript, which we have I won't bring it up on the screen <trn0000023> just for the</trn0000023> 	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	screen so I'll read it as well. It is a discussion between yourself and Callum Tulley. I will just read the top bit. In the third line down, you say: "I don't really have a clue what I'm doing in here. This is the first time I've ever been in visitors." Callum says: "'Cos you don't know what you're doing?" You say: "No, I was just here to learn. But Slim's buggered
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10	 Q. I want to ask you quickly about staffing levels, which you discuss in your first statement at a number of paragraphs 8, 46 to 47, 54 and 55. But I think, in general, you say Brook House was understaffed? A. Yes, that's basically the main point of it. It was understaffed, yes. Q. You were asked to comment, in particular in your second statement, about a transcript, which we have I won't bring it up on the screen <trn0000023> just for the note, which is footage of you conducting a head count</trn0000023> 	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10	screen so I'll read it as well. It is a discussion between yourself and Callum Tulley. I will just read the top bit. In the third line down, you say: "I don't really have a clue what I'm doing in here. This is the first time I've ever been in visitors." Callum says: "'Cos you don't know what you're doing?" You say: "No, I was just here to learn. But Slim's buggered off for a break and he's buggered off as well."
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11	 Q. I want to ask you quickly about staffing levels, which you discuss in your first statement at a number of paragraphs 8, 46 to 47, 54 and 55. But I think, in general, you say Brook House was understaffed? A. Yes, that's basically the main point of it. It was understaffed, yes. Q. You were asked to comment, in particular in your second statement, about a transcript, which we have I won't bring it up on the screen <trn0000023> just for the note, which is footage of you conducting a head count without a list of detainees and you're looking into the</trn0000023> 	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12	screen so I'll read it as well. It is a discussion between yourself and Callum Tulley. I will just read the top bit. In the third line down, you say: "I don't really have a clue what I'm doing in here. This is the first time I've ever been in visitors." Callum says: "'Cos you don't know what you're doing?" You say: "No, I was just here to learn. But Slim's buggered off for a break and he's buggered off as well." Callum says:
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	 Q. I want to ask you quickly about staffing levels, which you discuss in your first statement at a number of paragraphs 8, 46 to 47, 54 and 55. But I think, in general, you say Brook House was understaffed? A. Yes, that's basically the main point of it. It was understaffed, yes. Q. You were asked to comment, in particular in your second statement, about a transcript, which we have I won't bring it up on the screen <trn0000023> just for the note, which is footage of you conducting a head count without a list of detainees and you're looking into the room windows instead to count them. You discuss this at</trn0000023> 	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	screen so I'll read it as well. It is a discussion between yourself and Callum Tulley. I will just read the top bit. In the third line down, you say: "I don't really have a clue what I'm doing in here. This is the first time I've ever been in visitors." Callum says: "'Cos you don't know what you're doing?" You say: "No, I was just here to learn. But Slim's buggered off for a break and he's buggered off as well." Callum says: "It's just you on your own?"
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14	 Q. I want to ask you quickly about staffing levels, which you discuss in your first statement at a number of paragraphs 8, 46 to 47, 54 and 55. But I think, in general, you say Brook House was understaffed? A. Yes, that's basically the main point of it. It was understaffed, yes. Q. You were asked to comment, in particular in your second statement, about a transcript, which we have I won't bring it up on the screen <trn0000023> just for the note, which is footage of you conducting a head count without a list of detainees and you're looking into the room windows instead to count them. You discuss this at page 3 of your second statement. You say that you were</trn0000023> 	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14	screen so I'll read it as well. It is a discussion between yourself and Callum Tulley. I will just read the top bit. In the third line down, you say: "I don't really have a clue what I'm doing in here. This is the first time I've ever been in visitors." Callum says: "'Cos you don't know what you're doing?" You say: "No, I was just here to learn. But Slim's buggered off for a break and he's buggered off as well." Callum says: "It's just you on your own?" You say:
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15	Q. I want to ask you quickly about staffing levels, which you discuss in your first statement at a number of paragraphs 8, 46 to 47, 54 and 55. But I think, in general, you say Brook House was understaffed? A. Yes, that's basically the main point of it. It was understaffed, yes. Q. You were asked to comment, in particular in your second statement, about a transcript, which we have I won't bring it up on the screen <trn0000023> just for the note, which is footage of you conducting a head count without a list of detainees and you're looking into the room windows instead to count them. You discuss this at page 3 of your second statement. You say that you were concerned, during this head count, that detainees</trn0000023>	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15	screen so I'll read it as well. It is a discussion between yourself and Callum Tulley. I will just read the top bit. In the third line down, you say: "I don't really have a clue what I'm doing in here. This is the first time I've ever been in visitors." Callum says: "'Cos you don't know what you're doing?" You say: "No, I was just here to learn. But Slim's buggered off for a break and he's buggered off as well." Callum says: "It's just you on your own?" You say: "Well, now it is, yeah. Ben's buggered off and
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16	Q. I want to ask you quickly about staffing levels, which you discuss in your first statement at a number of paragraphs 8, 46 to 47, 54 and 55. But I think, in general, you say Brook House was understaffed? A. Yes, that's basically the main point of it. It was understaffed, yes. Q. You were asked to comment, in particular in your second statement, about a transcript, which we have I won't bring it up on the screen <trn0000023> just for the note, which is footage of you conducting a head count without a list of detainees and you're looking into the room windows instead to count them. You discuss this at page 3 of your second statement. You say that you were concerned, during this head count, that detainees appeared to be missing and you don't know if it was</trn0000023>	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16	screen so I'll read it as well. It is a discussion between yourself and Callum Tulley. I will just read the top bit. In the third line down, you say: "I don't really have a clue what I'm doing in here. This is the first time I've ever been in visitors." Callum says: "'Cos you don't know what you're doing?" You say: "No, I was just here to learn. But Slim's buggered off for a break and he's buggered off as well." Callum says: "It's just you on your own?" You say: "Well, now it is, yeah. Ben's buggered off and Slim's gone, so I'm just waiting and I hope nothing goes
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	Q. I want to ask you quickly about staffing levels, which you discuss in your first statement at a number of paragraphs 8, 46 to 47, 54 and 55. But I think, in general, you say Brook House was understaffed? A. Yes, that's basically the main point of it. It was understaffed, yes. Q. You were asked to comment, in particular in your second statement, about a transcript, which we have I won't bring it up on the screen <trn0000023> just for the note, which is footage of you conducting a head count without a list of detainees and you're looking into the room windows instead to count them. You discuss this at page 3 of your second statement. You say that you were concerned, during this head count, that detainees appeared to be missing and you don't know if it was reported. But you suggest, I think, in your statement</trn0000023>	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	screen so I'll read it as well. It is a discussion between yourself and Callum Tulley. I will just read the top bit. In the third line down, you say: "I don't really have a clue what I'm doing in here. This is the first time I've ever been in visitors." Callum says: "'Cos you don't know what you're doing?" You say: "No, I was just here to learn. But Slim's buggered off for a break and he's buggered off as well." Callum says: "It's just you on your own?" You say: "Well, now it is, yeah. Ben's buggered off and Slim's gone, so I'm just waiting and I hope nothing goes wrong."
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	Q. I want to ask you quickly about staffing levels, which you discuss in your first statement at a number of paragraphs 8, 46 to 47, 54 and 55. But I think, in general, you say Brook House was understaffed? A. Yes, that's basically the main point of it. It was understaffed, yes. Q. You were asked to comment, in particular in your second statement, about a transcript, which we have I won't bring it up on the screen <trn0000023> just for the note, which is footage of you conducting a head count without a list of detainees and you're looking into the room windows instead to count them. You discuss this at page 3 of your second statement. You say that you were concerned, during this head count, that detainees appeared to be missing and you don't know if it was reported. But you suggest, I think, in your statement that staffing shortages impacted the ability to do</trn0000023>	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	screen so I'll read it as well. It is a discussion between yourself and Callum Tulley. I will just read the top bit. In the third line down, you say: "I don't really have a clue what I'm doing in here. This is the first time I've ever been in visitors." Callum says: "'Cos you don't know what you're doing?" You say: "No, I was just here to learn. But Slim's buggered off for a break and he's buggered off as well." Callum says: "It's just you on your own?" You say: "Well, now it is, yeah. Ben's buggered off and Slim's gone, so I'm just waiting and I hope nothing goes wrong." You go on to say:
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	Q. I want to ask you quickly about staffing levels, which you discuss in your first statement at a number of paragraphs 8, 46 to 47, 54 and 55. But I think, in general, you say Brook House was understaffed? A. Yes, that's basically the main point of it. It was understaffed, yes. Q. You were asked to comment, in particular in your second statement, about a transcript, which we have I won't bring it up on the screen <trn0000023> just for the note, which is footage of you conducting a head count without a list of detainees and you're looking into the room windows instead to count them. You discuss this at page 3 of your second statement. You say that you were concerned, during this head count, that detainees appeared to be missing and you don't know if it was reported. But you suggest, I think, in your statement that staffing shortages impacted the ability to do a head count?</trn0000023>	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19	screen so I'll read it as well. It is a discussion between yourself and Callum Tulley. I will just read the top bit. In the third line down, you say: "I don't really have a clue what I'm doing in here. This is the first time I've ever been in visitors." Callum says: "'Cos you don't know what you're doing?" You say: "No, I was just here to learn. But Slim's buggered off for a break and he's buggered off as well." Callum says: "It's just you on your own?" You say: "Well, now it is, yeah. Ben's buggered off and Slim's gone, so I'm just waiting and I hope nothing goes wrong." You go on to say: "I've only done visitors for two days. This is my
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	Q. I want to ask you quickly about staffing levels, which you discuss in your first statement at a number of paragraphs 8, 46 to 47, 54 and 55. But I think, in general, you say Brook House was understaffed? A. Yes, that's basically the main point of it. It was understaffed, yes. Q. You were asked to comment, in particular in your second statement, about a transcript, which we have I won't bring it up on the screen <trn0000023> just for the note, which is footage of you conducting a head count without a list of detainees and you're looking into the room windows instead to count them. You discuss this at page 3 of your second statement. You say that you were concerned, during this head count, that detainees appeared to be missing and you don't know if it was reported. But you suggest, I think, in your statement that staffing shortages impacted the ability to do a head count? A. Yes. Which paragraph were you suggesting</trn0000023>	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	screen so I'll read it as well. It is a discussion between yourself and Callum Tulley. I will just read the top bit. In the third line down, you say: "I don't really have a clue what I'm doing in here. This is the first time I've ever been in visitors." Callum says: "'Cos you don't know what you're doing?" You say: "No, I was just here to learn. But Slim's buggered off for a break and he's buggered off as well." Callum says: "It's just you on your own?" You say: "Well, now it is, yeah. Ben's buggered off and Slim's gone, so I'm just waiting and I hope nothing goes wrong." You go on to say: "I've only done visitors for two days. This is my second day of visits."
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	 Q. I want to ask you quickly about staffing levels, which you discuss in your first statement at a number of paragraphs 8, 46 to 47, 54 and 55. But I think, in general, you say Brook House was understaffed? A. Yes, that's basically the main point of it. It was understaffed, yes. Q. You were asked to comment, in particular in your second statement, about a transcript, which we have I won't bring it up on the screen <trn0000023> just for the note, which is footage of you conducting a head count without a list of detainees and you're looking into the room windows instead to count them. You discuss this at page 3 of your second statement. You say that you were concerned, during this head count, that detainees appeared to be missing and you don't know if it was reported. But you suggest, I think, in your statement that staffing shortages impacted the ability to do a head count?</trn0000023> A. Yes. Which paragraph were you suggesting Q. Paragraph 8, page 3 of your second statement, 	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	screen so I'll read it as well. It is a discussion between yourself and Callum Tulley. I will just read the top bit. In the third line down, you say: "I don't really have a clue what I'm doing in here. This is the first time I've ever been in visitors." Callum says: "'Cos you don't know what you're doing?" You say: "No, I was just here to learn. But Slim's buggered off for a break and he's buggered off as well." Callum says: "It's just you on your own?" You say: "Well, now it is, yeah. Ben's buggered off and Slim's gone, so I'm just waiting and I hope nothing goes wrong." You go on to say: "You go on to say: "I've only done visitors for two days. This is my second day of visits." Then Callum asks:
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	 Q. I want to ask you quickly about staffing levels, which you discuss in your first statement at a number of paragraphs 8, 46 to 47, 54 and 55. But I think, in general, you say Brook House was understaffed? A. Yes, that's basically the main point of it. It was understaffed, yes. Q. You were asked to comment, in particular in your second statement, about a transcript, which we have I won't bring it up on the screen <trn0000023> just for the note, which is footage of you conducting a head count without a list of detainees and you're looking into the room windows instead to count them. You discuss this at page 3 of your second statement. You say that you were concerned, during this head count, that detainees appeared to be missing and you don't know if it was reported. But you suggest, I think, in your statement that staffing shortages impacted the ability to do a head count?</trn0000023> A. Yes. Which paragraph were you suggesting Q. Paragraph 8, page 3 of your second statement, paragraph 8. So it's over the page at 4 and the last 	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	screen so I'll read it as well. It is a discussion between yourself and Callum Tulley. I will just read the top bit. In the third line down, you say: "I don't really have a clue what I'm doing in here. This is the first time I've ever been in visitors." Callum says: "'Cos you don't know what you're doing?" You say: "No, I was just here to learn. But Slim's buggered off for a break and he's buggered off as well." Callum says: "It's just you on your own?" You say: "Well, now it is, yeah. Ben's buggered off and Slim's gone, so I'm just waiting and I hope nothing goes wrong." You go on to say: "You go on to say: "I've only done visitors for two days. This is my second day of visits." Then Callum asks: "Well, what are you gonna do if would you know
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	 Q. I want to ask you quickly about staffing levels, which you discuss in your first statement at a number of paragraphs 8, 46 to 47, 54 and 55. But I think, in general, you say Brook House was understaffed? A. Yes, that's basically the main point of it. It was understaffed, yes. Q. You were asked to comment, in particular in your second statement, about a transcript, which we have I won't bring it up on the screen <trn0000023> just for the note, which is footage of you conducting a head count without a list of detainees and you're looking into the room windows instead to count them. You discuss this at page 3 of your second statement. You say that you were concerned, during this head count, that detainees appeared to be missing and you don't know if it was reported. But you suggest, I think, in your statement that staffing shortages impacted the ability to do a head count?</trn0000023> A. Yes. Which paragraph were you suggesting Q. Paragraph 8, page 3 of your second statement, paragraph 8. So it's over the page at 4 and the last point there (i): 	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	screen so I'll read it as well. It is a discussion between yourself and Callum Tulley. I will just read the top bit. In the third line down, you say: "I don't really have a clue what I'm doing in here. This is the first time I've ever been in visitors." Callum says: "'Cos you don't know what you're doing?" You say: "No, I was just here to learn. But Slim's buggered off for a break and he's buggered off as well." Callum says: "It's just you on your own?" You say: "Well, now it is, yeah. Ben's buggered off and Slim's gone, so I'm just waiting and I hope nothing goes wrong." You go on to say: "Tve only done visitors for two days. This is my second day of visits." Then Callum asks: "Well, what are you gonna do if would you know what to do if there's a drug pass now?"
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24	Q. I want to ask you quickly about staffing levels, which you discuss in your first statement at a number of paragraphs 8, 46 to 47, 54 and 55. But I think, in general, you say Brook House was understaffed? A. Yes, that's basically the main point of it. It was understaffed, yes. Q. You were asked to comment, in particular in your second statement, about a transcript, which we have I won't bring it up on the screen <trn0000023> just for the note, which is footage of you conducting a head count without a list of detainees and you're looking into the room windows instead to count them. You discuss this at page 3 of your second statement. You say that you were concerned, during this head count, that detainees appeared to be missing and you don't know if it was reported. But you suggest, I think, in your statement that staffing shortages impacted the ability to do a head count? A. Yes. Which paragraph were you suggesting Q. Paragraph 8, page 3 of your second statement, paragraph 8. So it's over the page at 4 and the last point there (i): "In my opinion, yes, the staffing level did have an</trn0000023>	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24	screen so I'll read it as well. It is a discussion between yourself and Callum Tulley. I will just read the top bit. In the third line down, you say: "I don't really have a clue what I'm doing in here. This is the first time I've ever been in visitors." Callum says: "'Cos you don't know what you're doing?" You say: "No, I was just here to learn. But Slim's buggered off for a break and he's buggered off as well." Callum says: "It's just you on your own?" You say: "Well, now it is, yeah. Ben's buggered off and Slim's gone, so I'm just waiting and I hope nothing goes wrong." You go on to say: "You go on to say: "I've only done visitors for two days. This is my second day of visits." Then Callum asks: "Well, what are you gonna do if would you know what to do if there's a drug pass now?" And you say:

44 (Pages 173 to 176)