

Inquiries Act 2005
Restriction Order Pursuant to Section 19
Phase One Brook House Inquiry Hearings

1. During Day 29 of the Brook House Inquiry's public hearing, Dr Oozeerally gave live evidence to the Inquiry.
2. During the oral evidence of Dr Oozeerally, at approximately 14:14, a document was displayed on the hearing room monitors and in the Inquiry's public galleries. Within that document the date of birth of a detained person (D1914), that should have been appropriately redacted to preserve the anonymity of the Detained Person in accordance with my order (Restriction Order - Identity of Formerly Detained Individuals) dated 23 November 2021, was inadvertently displayed to the Inquiry hearing room and public galleries.
3. I made an immediate order during the hearing that the date of birth of the relevant detained person should be subject to a restriction order.
4. This is the written form of that order.

Restriction Order

5. This Restriction Order is made under section 19(1) of the Inquiries Act 2005 ("the Act") and binds all members of the public, including Core Participants.
6. This Restriction Order prohibits the disclosure or publication of the information referred to at paragraph 2 above.
7. For the avoidance of doubt, publication includes publishing information on any website, blog, Twitter or other social media.
8. In the case of public authorities, the restrictions specified in this Order take effect subject to the terms of section 20(6) of the Inquiries Act 2005.
9. Pursuant to section 20(4) of the Inquiries Act 2005 the Chair may vary or revoke this Restriction Order by making a further order during the course of the Inquiry.

10. Any person affected by this Order may apply in accordance with section 20 of the Inquiries Act 2005 to vary its terms.

11. This Restriction Order continues in force indefinitely, or unless the order is varied or revoked pursuant to section 20 of the Inquiries Act 2005.
