

Inquiries Act 2005
Restriction Order Pursuant to Section 19

Phase Two Brook House Inquiry Hearings

1. During Day 41 of Phase Two of the Brook House Inquiry public hearing on 30 March 2021 Jon Collier gave live evidence to the Inquiry.
2. During the oral evidence of Jon Collier, at approximately 11:20 whilst reading from a document, Counsel to the Inquiry inadvertently read aloud the second name of a detained person, D1234, during OPEN session. The detained person should have been referred to by Counsel using that individual's cipher.
3. I made an immediate order during the hearing that the name of D1234 should be subject to a restriction order. The Inquiry's live stream was also paused which prevented disclosure beyond the Inquiry's hearing room.
4. This is the written form of that order.

Restriction Order

5. This Restriction Order is made under section 19(1) of the Inquiries Act 2005 ("the Act") and binds all members of the public, including Core Participants.
6. This Restriction Order prohibits the disclosure or publication of the information referred to at paragraph 2 above, namely, the first name of D1234.
7. For the avoidance of doubt, publication includes publishing information on any website, blog, Twitter or other social media.
8. In the case of public authorities, the restrictions specified in this Order take effect subject to the terms of section 20(6) of the Inquiries Act 2005.
9. Pursuant to section 20(4) of the Inquiries Act 2005 the Chair may vary or revoke this Restriction Order by making a further order during the course of the Inquiry.
10. Any person affected by this Order may apply in accordance with section 20 of the Inquiries Act 2005 to vary its terms.

11. This Restriction Order continues in force indefinitely, or unless the order is varied or revoked pursuant to section 20 of the Inquiries Act 2005.
