5. Assessment of removability.

Medium. Subject is removable on his valid passport. However subjects solicitors have submitted a HR application. Timescale for removability 3 – 4 weeks.

6. Previous immigration compliance and non compliance.

Medium. Subject is an overstayer with no basis of stay in the UK. Subject was requested to report at Croydon on 04/01/17, however he did not report. Immigration attended subjects address where he was recently encountered.

7. Assessment of risk of harm to the public.

Low. Harm B: Immigration offender, seeking or obtaining leave to remain by deception. Trace PNC: Non-partial overstaying leave (2015), Sensitive/Irrelevant no convictions. Subject's risk of harm to the public is Low.

8. Known or claimed medical conditions (including mental health and/or self-harm issues and any reference to a Rule 35 report)

Subject claims to be suffering from Sensitive/Irrelevant. Referring officer says that the subject initially told them that he takes Sensitive/Irrelevant as and when required. He has not taken any medication recently and doesn't have any. But he is now claiming to have last taking the medication yesterday and to have lots of that medication at his home.

On 01/03/17 – ACDT open: Part C received at Brook House, hourly OBS, due to risk to him self.

On 19/03/17 – ACDT reviewed and now on constant supervision after Sensitive/Irrelevant

9. Risk indicators and risk level, according to the Adults at Risk policy (where relevant)

AAR Level 2 : There are no exceptional circumstances, no risk indicators and risk level that render the subject unsuitable for detention. The medication he claims to take, which appears to be backed up by the NHS letter, is a common medication we see for depression. This medication can be provided in detention. Fit for detention report has been requested to review subjects AAR level.

On 23/03/17 – Email sent to Brook House IRC, requesting fit for detention report.

On 27/03/17 – Fit for detention request emailed to 'healthcareBrookHouse@uk.g4s.com'

Currently awaiting fit for detention report.

10. Any other compassionate circumstances (including children issues and ties to the UK)

Subject has no known ties in the UK

11. Any other information relevant to the detention decision (for example, change in detainee's circumstances, whether this is a pregnant woman or a family for which Ministerial authority has been requested or granted to extend detention beyond 72 hours,).

Subject has no other information relevant to the detention decision.

12. Previous applications for bail or temporary release.

On 02/03/17 – TA request received and refusal letter sent to solicitors on 07/03/17.

On 17/03/17 – TA request received and refusal letter sent to solicitors.

13. Action plan for next review period (including any outstanding actions from preceding detention review).

Monitor subjects detention, check if fit for detention report received and progress of his further representations. Dairy event made for 31/03/17.

14. Recommendation (whether to maintain detention or release, supported by reasons).

Subject is an overstayer with no basis of stay in the UK. Subject was requested to report at Croydon on 04/01/17, however he failed to report. Officers from Immigration attended subjects address where he was recently encountered. Subject has not had leave for several years and has continuously tried to block any removal action by lodging futile applications which have all been refused. The subject risk of absconding is considered to be medium. He is removable on his valid passport. Therefore, detention remains appropriate to effect his lawful removal from the UK, pending consideration of his HR application.
