Notes on costs

These figures include expenditure where invoices have been paid during the reporting period and year-end accruals for invoices expected for this period which have not been received by the end of the reporting period.

These figures include expenditure for the Inquiry's public hearings up until 31 March 2022.

1 Inquiry legal costs. The Inquiry is directly funding its own legal team and all such costs are listed under the third row in the table above.

2 Core participant and witness costs. The Chair has made a number of Core Participant determinations and designated several firms as recognised legal representatives. Expenditure relating to core participants or witnesses to the Inquiry is made per the cost award protocol. The Home Secretary has also made a determination setting out the conditions under which the Chair should make awards for legal representation. Costs are set out in the fourth line of the table above.

3 Running costs including accommodation and IT. The Inquiry is currently invoiced every 16 weeks for accommodation. The majority of costs published for this period are for the Inquiry's document management systems and accommodation for the first and second phases of public hearings.

4 Consultancy and specialist services. Consultancy and specialist service costs paid during this reporting period include i) Communications; ii) expert witnesses; ii) witness support services; iii) witness tracing services; iv) video footage editing services; and v) AV support and conferencing.

The Brook House Inquiry is an independent statutory inquiry. Being independent means the Inquiry is not part of the Government nor is run by any department.

The Inquiry's costs are met by the Home Office who sponsor the Inquiry. A joint management statement exists to ensure clear roles and responsibilities are in place to facilitate the running of the Inquiry, in accordance with the provisions of the Inquiries Act 2005 and the Inquiry Rules 2006.

The final costs of the Inquiry will be published at the close of the Inquiry once all invoices have been received and settled. The categories in the table may expand during the progress of the Inquiry.
